

IMPORTS

1. The Knife River flint drill was found in Doniphan County.
2. The pipestone elbow pipe is from Pawnee Indian Village State Historic Site (14RP1). The pipestone pendant is from Arrowhead Island (14CF343).
3. The glass beads and metal hoe are from 14RP1. The French gunflint is from Canville Trading Post (14NO396).
4. The Jefferson City Missouri chert scraper is from the Larcom-Haggard site (14CO1).
5. The olivella shell bead is from the Radio Lane site (14CO385).
6. The Alibates agatized dolomite arrow point is from a site in Rice County (14RC410).
7. The obsidian arrow point is from El Cuartelejo (14SC1). This obsidian originated in the Valle Grande Rhyolite of New Mexico. The Southwestern pottery and the turquoise bead are from a site in Rice County (14RC410).
8. The obsidian dart point is from the Paint Creek site (14MP1).

EXPORTS

1. Smoky Hill jasper has been found at sites in west-central Iowa.
2. Bison products like this scapula hoe blank were traded to regions outside the Plains.
3. Iron from the Brenham meteorite, found in Kiowa County, Kansas, has been discovered at two sites in Ohio.
4. Smoky Hill jasper bifaces similar to this one were found at Spiro Mounds in east-central Oklahoma.
5. This Great Bend aspect beveled knife is made from Florence chert from quarries in southern Kansas. Florence A chert has been found at sites in northwest Texas and southwest Oklahoma.
6. A Kansas pipestone elbow pipe similar to this one was found at a site in northwest Oklahoma.
7. Bison products like this hide were traded to regions outside the Plains.
8. Smoky Hill jasper has been found at sites in eastern Colorado.

